As members of the Fallbrook Preferred Builders, each is expected to make positive contributions to the overall look and feel of Fallbrook, to uphold the standards of excellence that have made Fallbrook a premier development, and to conduct their work with respect for their fellow members, the developer, and the community. They are also subject to peer review and peer input on their home designs with the goal of continuous improvement.

In addition to being excellent craftsman, each member offers exceptional customer service. Their backgrounds and experiences are different and they each offer unique designs and options. Home buyers are assured of finding a perfect fit for their needs, budget, and taste.
